Thoughts To Sell By

On leadership

A true leader always keeps an element of surprise up his sleeve, which others cannot grasp but which keeps his public excited and breathless.

Charles de Gaulle

On working towards success

If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavours to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.

Henry David Thoreau

On why negotiation works

Negotiation in the classic diplomatic sense assumes parties more anxious to agree than to disagree.

Dean Acheson

On true leadership

I suppose leadership at one time meant muscles; but today it means getting along with people.

Indira Gandhi

On playing to your strengths

The race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong - but that's the way to bet.

Damon Runyon

On the importance of others

A hundred times every day I remind myself that my inner and outer life depend on the labours of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give in the same measure as I have received.
